GARAGE AND SEDAN
DESTROYED BY FIRE

Jack Raymond, 101 Superior st., orchestra director at the Grand theater, suffered a loss estimated at $1,000 when he destroyed his garage and a 1928 Chevrolet sedan this morning. The fire started about 2 o'clock.

A milkman leaving the 14th Dairy across the street from the Raymond house discovered the blaze and reported it to the fire department, neighbors awakened the Raymonds.

Sparks from the fire, which burned for 15 minutes, ignited clothing being mended on the rear porch of the Raymond home. The clothes were practically destroyed. The garage and the sedan were a total loss.

Mr. Chet McLean attributed the fire to a short circuit. A member of the voters at the last election, he noted that percentage does not exceed 1,000 must sign petitions. Prosecutor Wadeleman drew the petitioners names days ago and now has placed responsibility for the next more squarely upon the shoulders of Marion county voters.

clare a county office vacant 10 percent

LAWYER PLANS MOVE TO SAVE EVERETT KOON

Prepares To Ask Court of Ap-

SENTENCED TO DIE

Petition in Error for Slayer To

That the district court of appeals at Lima will be asked to grant a stay of execution for Everett Koon, slayer, who was convicted and sentenced to death for killing his wife, Mrs. J. E. Evans, was a noted trial of Everett, Johnson, attorney for the convicted.

Johnson's statement came with his announcement that he would file a motion in error with the district court next week. Koon was convicted in court on a charge of committing murder while committing a robbery. The verdict carried a mandatory sentence of death in the electric chair.

Sets Koon for Nov. 7

In sentencing Koon a few days after the verdict, Judge George H. Seelye had scheduled him to die at 11:30 a.m. on Nov. 6. Koon is to be executed at 11:30 a.m. on Nov. 7, same time as the other condemned murderer, Charles Smith, who was sentenced to death on Nov. 6.

If the conviction is upheld, the district court will have slightly more than a month in which to dismiss the appeal. If it is not upheld, the court will have until Dec. 1 to decide whether to grant a stay of execution.

School Days

Reporter Gets in Personal Touch with Modern Education by Enrolling as One Day Pupil in Marion Class-Rooms

JOURNAL NOTE.—Friday members of the Marion public school four series get a glimpse into the day's representative seven grades and all the youngsters being prepared for advancement into classes where the heavier studies are taught.

BY FRANCES BENNING
A CALIFORNIA woman in her first grade 5 students of Pearl Street School yesterday turned to school this winter to realize that children really do improve likewise. Will do it less frequently than the more intelligent little ones who present a challenge in one of school, if just about to enter adolescence.

A gathering of a seventh grade selected with other 100 students verging near graduation and awaiting graduation in April found it fully out of the primary stage indicates that the teacher has indeed a problem.

Mrs. Anna Flower teacher of one of the two large Pearl Street seventh grades, is well able to cope with youngsters of 12 1/2 age, particularly those about to pass on to junior high school. Her room is a model in many orderliness and system.

Teacher To Learn
Ten days of children of any age, Miss Flower says, and particularly those of the higher elementary grades, 11 to 14 years of age, will learn an hour or more in five each new thought than are the young people whom they replace, she herself is now studying for her own present day.

After a week's work in her class Mrs. H. G. Wardell, the teacher, set up much difficulty, but it is in the school room that the real trouble begins. There is a definite quite an important element with which the teacher deals.

It lies in the fact that Mr. D. W. Carl, Mrs. H. G. Wardell, the teacher, is really not qualified. It required what art is often called to respond quickly and skillfully to the many questions which popped into Miss H. G. Wardell's mind as she tried to teach the lesson study in particular.

Must Be Doing
The note at the top of the page urged that the children rest between the hours of 10 A. M. and 12 noon, that they eat lunch in the little room, and that it meant to go outside. The girls didn't quite quit Miss Flower's office until half past eleven, but instead rather the putting of the coats and dresses into the car and two to off.

I became quite familiar with the seven graders in connection with the majority of the three other sons being in doubt that when all the youngsters of tenth grade to have an oral reading lesson in their room, I may say, the only one and largest reader in the room. I was immediately the recipient of no end of compliments and grateful little smiles. Music followed reading. Eighth grade members in one room and Miss F. J. Parker in another singing. I was with Little Miss Davis, who was also a participant. The supreme enjoyment of children was manifested in the younger who gravely presented the visitor with a smile, a look and waited expectantly for her to burst into song with the others.

The other more difficult subjects of the day—history, history, spelling and arithmetic had been discussed with enthusiasm when the children were more definitely included.

Carl Street is one of the few grade schools in Marion operated on the departmental system, with change of classes at the end of each period. By this method children are taught by several different teachers during the day, moved about from one room to another, and are better prepared for the more advanced departmental work in junior and senior high school. Pearl Street is the only grade school in the city with two of every grade, fourth fifth, sixth and seventh. Two overflow first and second grades from the 11th in building are quartered in the basement.

The trouble with Senator Bruce's drinking charges against the two Republican candidates is that the witnesses he cites refuse to support them. The senator, it may be said, is made of himself about the smallest figure in the present campaign.

The police of Canton are hunting for a hit-and-run driver who robbed his victim of nearly $100 in cash and left his body at the curbstone. Still, we suppose, some people will continue to try out against capital punishment.

Mr. Roskoff should realize that there is danger to his cause in his statement that Mr. Hoover, if elected, would prove a Mussolini. There are an awful lot of people who are inclined to feel that a Mussolini is exactly what is needed over here!

Four captains and twenty-two patrolmen are under arrest in Republican Philadelphia on charges of corruption and the graft trial, in the $20,000,000 sewer pipe conspiracy in Democratic New York City is in progress.
After all is said, there is a lot to be said for the old one to the effect that graft in itself.

The United States customs authorities will probably decide to hold Anna Walaska's dubious property till her return to France, but not attempt to force her to pay duties amounting to over $1,000,000; as she manifestly was honest in making her declaration and in believing she had a right to bring in her jewelry and gowns. Any other course, we are free to say, would have had all the marks of penalizing honesty and taken on the appearance of holding.

Recording the presence of two new, rapidly-growing sunspots which make the total of sunspots visible nearly two, scientists are predicting severe electro-magnetic disturbances at the earth's center, today or tomorrow. Here's an ideal opportunity to know. Action is promised no later than hand that their predictions will not be forgotten.

Another Campaign Lie Nailed.
Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W.
Mellon, in response to a request for light on the charge made on the stamp that he owns and controls more liquor than any man in the United States and that, previous to the adoption of the eighteenth amendment, he was the largest distiller of whisky in the world, has made the following statement:

"I once owned some stock in a distillery company as I owned stock in many other business enterprises. The stock in this company was disposed of before I took office as Secretary of the treasury. In fact the distillery ceased from doing any of its manufacturing business over three years before the prohibition amendment went into effect and the entire business was wound up. At no time was I ever actively engaged in the manufacturing business. I have no interest in or connection with the distribution of liquor or of any liquor business."

While it is a bit hard to understand just how Mr. Mellon comes into the present presidential campaign, it may be just as well that he has uttered this statement. In the interest of truth it is always pleasing to have him thus nailed.

The lower house of the Arkansas legislature has adopted a resolution requiring all candidates for appointive positions at the 1929 session to file oaths of loyalty in the present Democratic national ticket, which gives us an idea of practical politics as our Democratic friends play the game out in Arkansas.

Katherine Campbell's warning to girls to keep out of beauty contests, holding that it makes them coarse, would have been somewhat more effective had it not been for their subsequent admission that, were she sixteen again and had a chance to go to Atlanta city as an entrant in a beauty contest, she "sort of" thought she would. As it is, it looks as though her warning is a little bit of advertising of her entrance into the contest for a trip around the world.

The Menace of Disloyalty.

When a senator or a congressman speaks during a session of congress from the floor of the house of which he may be member, it is one thing; when he speaks during the adjournment of congress to a general gathering, it is quite another. In the former case, he can claim immunity for his utterances; in the latter case, he is in no way protected in what he may say save by his ability to make good any charge he may make by establishing their truth.

Thus it is that the address made by Congressman McIlvyn J. Mass, of St. Paul, to 1,000 men and women attending the luncheon of the Advertising Men's post of the American Legion at the Hotel Sherman in Chicago, Monday, should command respect as an indication of the men and women who preach against national defense for the money there is in it, who, he charges, are at present contracting their energies on the children of the United States.

I am speaking of many of the highly-organized groups which are ostensibly out to promote peace in the world by destroying all national defense in America," Mr. Mass said.
And he named as two of those organizations the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, and the National Council for the Prevention of War.

"That last organization," he continued,
"has a secretary named E. W. Libby, who is one of the most dangerous enemies of the United States. He openly boasts that he can get out a lobby of 50,000 to 200,000 letters to members of congress on a day's notice.
And his office is in Washington in the shadow of the national capitol."

"These so-called peace organizations are out to destroy every vestige of nationalism in the United States," the congressman went on to say.

"They are out to destroy this country, our army and our navy. Even the Boy Scouts are on their blacklist as a military organization."

The professional pacifists, Congressman Mass said, are demoralizing the children's sense of nationalism, Americanism and patriotism and they are obtaining the children's signatures to cards which pledge them never to bear arms for the United States for any cause whatever. And then he continued:

"The rank and file of these organizations is made up of well-meaning, but misguided and deluded persons, men and women. The leaders are dangerous enemies * * * and they are pacifists purely for the pay they get out of it. They make their living at it and they live high."

"They are preaching that we are an imperialistic nation. If we were would we have sponsored the Monroe doctrine? Wouldn't we instead have solved all of the South American countries and made them a part of the United States? Would we have sent our men to bleed and die in the world war and then refuse to take anything for it?"

The congressman then told how he happened to become interested in the vast paci-fistic machinery.

"It was when the bill calling for the building of a certain number of ships for our navy was coming up," he said.

"I suddenly got a great number of letters from people in my district demanding I vote against the bill. Now, I had been elected on a platform of national defense and I know something was wrong, that these letters were written by the Great Creator to control the temperature of the skin.

Beauty and the Million

DRAMATIC STORY OF AMAZING ADVENTURE

BY WILLIAM ALVIN WOLFE

WINTER SEASIDE was the place where he had been born and brought up. How had he come? Where was he now? He was a man, a rich man.

He had been able to tell Irene that he could and would have made his confession at once. But that had been impossible. He could tell her before everyone where he lived—and so there had come the episode of the flat she had taken for him—and on top of what he had said, his sneer and his insinuation of finance.

Then Blake again had broken it when he would have refused absolutely even to consider Mr. Delmar's scheme. Blake's evil genius—and he had let Blake at every opportunity to create a personal issue between them.

And he was human. He and Blake were rivals for Irene's love. It was a king more than any man was capable of to expose him to him late himself above himself before a man like Blake. Just so, it had been while he was a pitiful and furious from his encounter with Blake.

He planned a little ruthlessly as he saw how skilfully Foster had handled Jim. He had been a soldier in his time, he had earned money in most of the wars in which it can be carried and he was able to advise even though the consequences of his might be so serious, young Foster's technique.

Then suddenly in a new mood he rose. He took off his coat with pain and anger he set to work. He had indeed been only one to know he had not as yet told that there was any secret about things he indulged him; he was in no matter what he had done upon an option that could be a "factor"—a complete success.

If it was so that people were held to the grand jury on charges of shooting with intent to wound and released under $1,500 bond each.

Major to Investigate

Major C. J. Stinson, who established the liquor squad of which the three men were members, said today he would not personally condemn the shooting until he had investigated further. He said if the three were convicted he might discontinue his dry squad, though he thought it had proven its worth.

Knitter and Kledy charge that Cleo fired the shots and he has not denied it. Cleo returned to the point where they were stationed beside the bridge after walking alongside the automobile, and told them that Miss Heywood had been only slightly hurt, the other two said. Knitter said he surmised that they all go to headquarters at one and report that his compatriots advised that the shot was fired in the morning.

Mrs. Heywood still was in critical condition today. Physicians have not determined whether her skull is fractured. Her father, a native of Jarrow-on-the-Tyne, England, who plans to take out citizens' papers in November, is employed by the National Tube Co. He came to this country four years ago and Betty and her older sister, Anne, joined him at his new home in Ohio in the spring of 1927.

Mr. Harry Jennings, of this city, was chosen president when members of the Marion County Women's Christian Temperance Union held their annual election of officers at the afternoon session of their annual convention yesterday at First United Brethren church.

There were forty-four attendees, delegates being sent from the Huron, Marion, Ashland, Franklin, Licking, Delaware, Madison, Franklin, Perry, and Marion unions.

The new officers elected were: President, Mrs. Mary Jennings; Vice-president, Mrs. Anna Lindner; Lillian Stevens, Finance; Willard and Florence Richards, and from the Licking, Perry and Madison unions.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. Emma Gustafson of Estelle, vice-president; Mrs. Minnie Hunter, of Marion, recording secretary; and Mrs. Bertha Barkley, of Marion, treasurer. Mrs. John Shaffer, of Marion, was appointed corresponding secretary, and Mrs. A. G. Bailey, assistant recording secretary.

Gives Address

The Rev. Mrs. Shaffer, of Prospect, retiring president, gave the annual president's address on the subject, "Self-sacrifice." The president's gavel then presented. Mrs. Jennings by Mrs. Shaffer, was one the new president and given the county W. C. T. U. in 1920, during her first term as president. BIDS FOR VOTE

Governor Leaves Twin Cities for Invasion of Wisconsin, Milwaukee Next Stop

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
Marion Star Staff Writer
Minneapolis, Sept. 25.—Gov. Al Smith left the fires of Republican doubt last night with a speech that pleased particularly for Minnesota's sake. In 10,000 people in St.
Paul, a majority and far more literally than at any time.

Within the space of 30 minutes Gov.
Al Smith put the records of the old Roosevelt, the old "Foolish" candidate of Senator Shoup, of Senator Norris, of Senator La Follette, of Senator Lowden, and for Herbert Hoover as the best of the bunch.

All this was no accident. It was a direct bill for the old progressive vote of Minnesota, which expressed itself four years ago in its share of 340,000 votes for the La Follette third party ticket. The five Republicans named by Governor Smith are conceded to have great followings in Minnesota.

Solemn and saturnine by turns Gov.
Al Smith discarded his manuscript and talked informally to the thousands who within and without jammed the St. Paul auditorium. The Governor did not attempt to follow his text. And as he himself expressed it, "I talked turkey in the crowd."

The governor said he was in favor of giving the people the low down on Washington, which he asserted President Coolidge has not done. He asked his audience to compare the government's leadership of today with that existing under Roosevelt and Wilson. He accused Coolidge and Hoover of lack of leadership. In solving the farm problem he ridiculed the Republican platform in a dozen spots. He named both President Coolidge and Secretary Hoover as experts on the real issues and he wound up his speech with a challenge to his hearers to be faithful to the principles of Roosevelt and to La Follette rather than the principles of Hoover and Coolidge.

Invites Wisconsin
Today Governor Smith will invade Wisconsin. Tomorrow night he will speak in Milwaukee probably on broad topics. The governor is scheduled to have St. Paul at 11 p.m. for a brief journey through Wisconsin, with arrival in Milwaukee tomorrow night.

Wisconsin is the veritable heart of the La Follette country. Four years ago La Follette carried Wisconsin over Coolidge, by 310,000. The political history of the state behind that is checkered. Harding carried in 1920, Hoover in 1928 and Wilson in 1916.

New Bowling Plant To Be Opened On Saturday Night

8 ALLEYS BEING FINISHED TODAY

Barber and Shoe Repair Shops Occupy Front Rooms; Season Will Start in Marion Next Week; Leagues Are Formed

FORMAL opening of Marion's new bowling alleys at 120 South Prospect will be held Saturday night, according to an announcement made by the owner, R. H. Keen of Ashland. First work on the $20,000 center will be completed Saturday morning, all the alleys having been installed and interior redecorated.

After being peacefully buried for the past several years, bowling promises to be revived as one of the leading winter sports in Marion. Bowlers will have one of the most modern parks in the state for their activities.

The interior of the rooms is decorated in a white plastic finish. A steam heating plant is located in the back, while a large fan will provide ventilation and a means of regulating its temperature.

In addition to the bowling alleys, two business rooms also occupy the block. A shoe repair shop is in one, while a barber shop occupies the other.

The front section of the bowling rooms has been converted into a lunch room where refreshments will be served.

Saturday night, the alleys will be held open for visitors with no league games scheduled. Under the direction of Hollis Slagle the Business, Women's and All-Star leagues have been organized. Bowling in these two loops will start next week.

When the season gets into full swing, it is expected that around 100 teams will be rolling in regular leagues. These will be organized during the coming weeks.

Special care is being taken to provide suitable quarters for women bowlers. A rest room equipped with furniture has been set aside for their use, it.

Clock room and locker space has also been provided.

It has been the aim of the owner, R. H. Keen, to provide an up-to-date quarters for the sport in Marion. He operates alleys in Ashland where he makes his home.

OXFORD—Miami university's initial game in a contest called football will be played here tomorrow when the Defiance team arrives for a non-conference tilt. The visitors will be unopposed by the big Red, with a line averaging 150, and the total fielded 175 pounds, while the average weight of the northmen is given as 175.

GIGANTS PROTEST WIN OF CUBS IN OPENER

Says Reese Tackled at Home

Plates by Chicago

Catcher

New York, Sept. 28.—The New York Giants today entertained a remote hope that John A. Heydler, president of the National League would uphold their protest that their first game with the Cubs yesterday, which the Cubs won by a score of 3 to 2, should be replayed because of a decision of Umpire Bill Klem.

When Reese was declared out at the plate in the sixth inning, the Giants claimed that catcher Hartnett of the Cubs had tackled the New York player and held him while Deak rushed up with the ball and tagged him. Klem denied the claim and was supported by the otherumpires.

President Heydler had not received the New York's club official protest to the incident early today. He said that upon receiving it he would rule on it immediately.

By the time a man reaches 40 he has either got rid of his conceit or doubled his hopes.

DAYTON—University of Dayton's Flyers are all in readiness for the opening of the 1928 grid season tomorrow at Dayton stadium when the Red and Blue tangle with the Orange of Findlay college. Coach Rutledge will start an entirely veteran team against the up-starters, and it is whispered that little Findlay will go home with the short end of the score. Although the Orange last Oberlin last week, they will have a different problem to buck when they face the Flyers tomorrow.

CINCINNATI—Coach George Babbitt, now at the University of Cincinnati, has had a tough job on his hands this season. The job is rounding out a football team depending almost entirely on a green team, most of them being from last year's fresh squad. No one can forecast what kind of a team the Hoosiers will have until it is seen under fire and pressure. The first night football game will be played by Cincinnati tomorrow night when the Hawkeyes play the Hoosiers at Cincinnati field. The game will begin at 8:30.

WILMINGTON—Shifty Bolan and his helpers left this morning for Cleveland where they will look for work with Case tomorrow afternoon, without the services of two regulars, Bill Corzett, 200 pound guard, and Tom Blackburn, halfback. Both men were injured in semipro Thursday, and will be forced to remain for awhile suffering from bad cuts. Bolan's boys are expected to go to town with Case, however, but it will be a real football game, nevertheless.

DELaware—Coach Gantner has been putting his Ohio Wesleyan players through some pretty stiff drills this week, in preparation for the Marquette game here tomorrow, and according to depesters, the Red and Black will come out on the long end of the tilt. Bob Jones, sophomore, will undoubtedly be in the starting lineup. Jones weighs 195 pounds, and is a

COLUMBUS—Four mainstays of the Capital college football squad have been on the hospital list this week, nursing sore legs and shoulders, but it is hoped all will be able to be in the lineup tomorrow when Baldwin-Wallace comes here to tangle with the Purple and White. The new football field named Capital field will be dedicated tomorrow, and Coach Katherine is drilling his men hard to give the Bergens a setback. Captain Al Kauber has a strained ankle. Max, promising quarter, has a sore leg. Schenck is nursing a game shoulder, and Zieherer, guard, is out with a "charley horse."

ASHLAND—A new threat has been found by Coach Schenck in Bill Slaughter, 175 quarterback, who will get his first tomorrow when Wooster entertains Ashland college at Wooster.

In practice Wednesday, Slaughter droppedkicked 17 goals in 21 tries! He kicks equally well with either foot. It has been announced by Coach Boles of Wooster that after tomorrow's game, Ashland and Wooster will cease football relations.

YANKEE VICTORY IN CONTEST TODAY WILL END MACK'S CHANCES

Season Nears Finish; Only Three Games Ahead for Contenders

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The American can leave corner may perform an autopsy upon the Philadelphia Athletics this afternoon. Coach of death, if the patient survives, may be a New York victory over Detroit twice, a Chicago triumph over the A's, both which is to say that the Yankees will clinch their third successive pennant if they turn the Tigers again today or if the Mackmen lose to the White Sox. Lefty Grove beat the Sox yesterday, 8 to 2, so that the Yankees turned Detroit, 4 to 3 and 8 to 5, and increased their lead to 2½ games. Each contender has only three more games to play.

Connie Mack's cause looks hopeless. The Yanks have lost three games in a row before, of course, but are not likely to do so at this stage of the party.

Rube Walberg is ready to carry the A's standard lone battle today. Earl McElroy appears to be Detroit's best bet to stop the Yanks. Manager Hughie Mulligan, who is still uncertain whether to sit down, is Annoyed by his sitting down, Babe Ruth yesterday decided to overcome this handicap by the simple expedient of knocking the ball out of the lot so that he could trot around to the home plate at his leisure. However No. 41 and 22 was the result.

While Ruth's emergence from his hitting slump increased New York's chances in the pennant race and in the world series, the club's hospital list was augmented by an injury to Earl Combs, center fielder. He crashed against a concrete wall and sprained his right wrist.

The Yanks took 12 out of 22 games with the Tigers this year and have captured their season's series with every club in the league. No team in the National League can boast of a similar record.

Home looks like the best place in the world, and the friendliest thing in it is the loaf of Bamby Bread on the table.

Mother left it there when she cut the last thick slice that you ate, spread with honey, out under the apple tree.

Bamby Bread supplies even greater nourishment than the rich, hearty foods, plus an ease of digestion they lack.

Bamby Bread

is sustaining, nourishing, delicious. This loaf made from pure ingredients of a high quality is the safest of foods, when growing is the main issue of life.

ROSALIE seems to be a little bit surprised, although not quite as much as Old Sol, over the gray clouds and little drops of rain. But she really is quite pleased to have an opportunity to carry her new umbrella. It's collapsible and fits into little straps on the inside of the bottom of her envelope purse. The decorative fessel and cord hang out of the purse and the whole umbrella matches the purse in color. When not in use the umbrella folds up—or should we say "down"—to 10½ inches.

Little Interruption Reported In Downward Movement

BULLS PUSH HEAVY SELLING OF STOCKS

United States Steel and Motor Favorites Show Decided Weakness

TRADING ACTIVE

Banks Mark Down Collateral Value of Market's Leading Issues

RF W. S. COUSINS
I. N. S. Financial Editor

New York, Sept. 25.—The downward movement in stock prices continued with little interruption and small variation today. Easier money conditions and the brilliant performances of the country's industrial and commercial enterprises served as a background for the profit-taking and distributing activities of the big traders rather than an indifference to additional purchases or short by them, and Wall Street again received the information that a number of the big bulls had gone the limit in buying of stocks and were now ready to distribute their stocks on a declining market.

At any rate selling pressure gained momentum today and most of the speculative leaders, after an unsuccessful attempt to weather the storm, fell into a lower range of prices in fairly active trading. Weakness of United States Steel and the bulk of the holding motor stocks was a source of disengagement for the bulls, and this was due in part to reports that the banks had marked down the collateral value of a number of the active stocks, striking as much as 50 per cent from the loaning value of a number of the market favorites.

The August business summary, as presented today by the reserve board, confirmed the most favorable reports and summaries of the banks and private agencies. Last month outshining my previous August in the history of the country in industrial production, gain in employment and increase in wages as well as increasing purchasing power for the agricultural districts. The background for a new profit-taking period in the stock market has evidently been formed.

Women Vital Part of Age Mrs. Upton Tells G.O.P. Meet as Republican Drive Opens

Have Energized Political Life of State and Nation, She Asserts; Fess, Burton and Davis on Program; Advance Party's Claims

Columbus, Sept. 25.—"No one will deny that women have energized the political life of the state and nation," declared Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Warren, in her address as presiding officer at the statewide Republican rally here this afternoon.

"In former days, women were relays of men—dead men!" Mrs. Upton continued. "This is the story told by the tombstones marking the last resting place of the good Puritan women in the section of the state from which I come. Women were relays then. Today, however, they are a vital, living part of the great progressive movement of this age."

"Recently a day passed at Republican state headquarters that I do not hear some man inquire: 'What are the women doing in this campaign? We are depending on their energy and enthusiasm to bring victory in November.'

"In this vital campaign, we are voting for the prosperity of our home. We are voting for turning spindles and whirling wheels and blaring forges."

"We are voting for a happy smile on the face of contented housewives. We are voting for the abolition of poverty.

With Hoover and Curtis, Cooper and the whole Republican ticket, we are going forward to a splendid and designed victory at the polls in November," said Mrs. Upton.

"Within my remembrance, we have never had such a solid, state and national, to present in the platform as we have this year," Mrs. Upton declared.

"It arouses our deepest interest and enthusiasm and the women of this state have thrown their whole souls into this campaign. We can work for those things in which women believe,

"In Hoover and Curtis we have triumphed," Mrs. Upton asserted.

Society Brand Clothes

5 Points of Excellence in a Briarcliff Suit

(1st) A luxurious finish, due to the unusual lustre of Briarcliff yarns. (2nd) A great ability to withstand wear. (Briarcliff cloth is a worsted, tightly woven.) (3rd) Comfort—an ease and freedom peculiarly Society Brand's. (4th) The Snug-Ease Shoulder—an exclusive feature assuring a smooth, snug fit at the shoulders and neck. That's mighty unusual! (5th) And best of all—the typical Society Brand cut. Absolutely correct. An enduring shapeliness that lasts as long as the cloth.

Briarcliff fabrics come in a variety of new suit-models and in many exclusive patterns and shades. Subdued browns, grays, blue-grays—
